

Downtown Associates Meeting Nov. 13,2008

Attendance: Connie Perhach, JoAnn White, Ed Kunzleman, Mike Thompson, Tammy Wagner, Susie and Lew Jones, Cindy Davis, Carol Longstreth

The November 6th meeting was rescheduled for Nov. 13th at Jenney Montgomery Office since none of the officers were able to attend on Nov. 3rd.

President Connie called the meeting to order.

Treasurers Report:

Old Business:

Christmas Open House: final details were discussed. All money from the carriage rides were to be turned into Connie at Opulent Source. All entry forms for the gift basket drawing were to be given to her also by Tuesday. JoAnn White said she will place the yard signs out next week for the Open House. Ed Kunzleman has arranged for carriage rides at Ivy's in addition to the company we contracted with. He will collect donations from shops on Paint Street to offset the expenses. JoAnn said the Association could donate $350 if we make that from ticket sales to help his expenses. Tammy said that several shops on W.Water St. have paid for a live remote from WKKJ on Saturday. After discussion JoAnn said she would get a $100 Association ad in Circleville, Jackson, Waverly and Fayette Newspapers. Tammy said there were 12 baskets valued at over $75 each. All the gift baskets would be kept at Paper Party Place for the winners to pick up. Connie will draw the winners on Tuesday afternoon. All food drive donations should be dropped off at Celebrations Etc. on Tuesday. They will be given to one of the local food banks.

Nominating Committee: Lew and Ed discussed the nominating process. It had been suggested that an officer not be on the committee but JoAnn White said that the bylaws can not be changed without going to a vote. JoAnn read the bylaws concerning the nominating process. Ed, JoAnn and Lew will meet on Tuesday at noon at Grinder's to pick a slate of officers.

Meeting adjourned. Next Meeting is at Schlegel's on December 5th 6pm.

All active members have the right to vote. Active members are those with dues paid in full. All absentee votes must be received by Dec 4th in order to be counted. Nominations can be taken from the floor on Dec. 5th. Write-in nominations are also permitted. Please put a check next to the name or fill in the blank with a nomination. Be sure your nomination is willing to serve if elected.
